FREMONT — A teacher from Blacow Elementary School is among six educators who will be honored Saturday for their work with students who are learning English.

Milagro Orantes, who teaches in the Spanish-English immersion program at Blacow, will be recognized as bilingual teacher of the year, during a conference of the Alameda County Office of Education.

Other honorees include Roxanna Ghassemi, a para-educator in San Leandro Unified; teacher Lee Ann Chinn of Castro Valley Unified; Rebecca Abbott, an English learner site coach and intervention coordinator for Oakland Unified; and Patricia Lahud of the Livermore Valley Joint Unified School District, who has been named "support staff of the year."

Suzanne Bryant of Alameda Unified, meanwhile, will receive an award as administrator of the year.

The educators will be recognized during a luncheon at an English language conference at Cal State East Bay, 25800 Carlos Bee Blvd., Hayward.

The luncheon will take place from 12:15 to 1:20 p.m. in the New University Union building.
