

TRI-CITY AREA COMMUNITY CALENDAR

TODAY | May 16 ³⁵⁰

■ Credentiaing fair — 9 to 11 a.m. This free fair is sponsored by the Alameda County Office of Education. For those considering becoming a credentialed teacher in California, already working in a classroom as a paraprofessional or substitute teacher, recently graduated from college, or considering changing careers. Learn about single subject, multiple subject and special education university programs. Fair held at the Alameda County Office of Education, 313 W. Winton Ave., conference room 142, Hayward. For more information, contact Wanda Irish at 510-670-4179, or e-mail: wanda@acoe.org.

■ One Bear Project — 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. The annual bear project, in conjunction with Faultline Harley-Davidson/Buell, presents a "bear party '09," benefiting Abode Services (formerly Tri-City Homeless Coalition). Make a difference in the life of a child in need by donating a new or gently loved teddy bear or other stuffed animal to a child waiting to give it lots of love. Activities include a community information fair, entertainment, a motorcycle showcase, and a silent auction where only bids of a teddy bears or stuffed animal will earn an auction item — no money. There is also free fingerprinting for children, courtesy of Kiwanis Club of Fremont, and free barbecue while it lasts. Faultline Harley-Davidson/Buell, 41215 Alhambra St., Fremont pianist with lightning-fast fingers, has a repertoire that reflects the whole range of American 20th century pop music, from blues to bebop, ragtime to rock 'n' roll.
