Ladew to Join County School Board

350

The Alameda County Board of Education has appointed Philip Ladew to serve as the new trustee for Area 4, which includes Castro Valley and the surrounding unincorporated areas as well as San Leandro.

Ladew is a director for the California Court Appointed Special Advocates for Children, managing child welfare operations that provide volunteer mentor-advocates to abused and neglected children.

Ladew said he would bring his expertise in working with the Juvenile Justice courts, Juvenile Hall, Special Education programs, and the expulsion appeals processes. His term ends June 2012.
